

Claudette Burroughs-White Council Member, District 2 City of Greensboro

Creating inclusiveness between citizens and City Government, strengthening neighborhoods, insuring quality basic services and increasing public safety are all priorities for Council Member Claudette Burroughs-White.

"I have a good understanding of the needs, challenges and strengths of our City. My professional and community service experiences have been useful and helped me to appreciate all people. I know how to listen and to acknowledge our City's tremendous diversity. I want to be sure that the citizens of District 2 and all citizens feel represented and have a greater balance in their quality of life."
